NATURE TEACHES US THE VALUE OF
DIVERSITY AND INTERCONNECTEDNESS—
LESSONS THAT ARE EQUALLY IMPORTANT IN BUILDING STRONG AND INCLUSIVE TEAMS.

Dear Guests,

As our reserve has given us wisdom and inspired us to persevere against all odds through decades, so we hope it can also do the same for you.

Symbiosis, cooperation, and diversity are hallmarks of functional and stable ecosystems which all of life depend upon. These very tenets have also steered the course of humanity, facilitating our survival as a species in the grand tapestry of life. May your time together among, and with, our restored sanctuary remind you of these life principles for innovation, adaptation, and enduring resilience.

When you visit our project, you also lend resources, awareness and visibility to the critical conservation work that we do in the area and beyond. We thank you for your consideration and we look forward to potentially hosting your team amidst the humble beauty and tranquility of our forests.

MASUNGI GEORESERVE & THE MASUNGI GEOPARK PROJECT

It took nearly three decades and a supportive community to transform our beloved Masungi Georeserve into what it is today - an internationally renowned conservation and geotourism initiative, with its humble origins and an inspiring tale of determination.

Our journey began in 1996 when our engineering organization, Blue Star Development Corporation, recognized the ecological importance of the project site. Despite others viewing it as a source of construction materials and as land to sell & maximise for development, we started genuine restoration efforts instead, combating illegal logging and land speculation, using our expertise in engineering and development work.

To safeguard this cherished place from encroaching urbanization, we opened monitoring trails to the public in 2015, introducing the Masungi Georeserve and opening the Masungi Georeserve Foundation to raise awareness and help sustainably finance expensive operations. Our wish is that people can create a relationship with the place and understand why it is worth saving the same way we had.

In 2017, inspired and as invited by Secretary Gina Lopez of the DENR, we accepted the challenge to restore some 2,700 hectares of land around our project site, at no cost to government, through savings raised through the years. This proved critical to downstream areas including Metro Manila which relied on the Upper Marikina Watershed for water, siltation control, and flood control especially during typhoon season. . The Masungi Geopark Project was then born, expanding our protection efforts to critical watersheds & reforesting nearby mountains.

In the heart of these endeavors lies a profound message: we have the power to heal our Earth, one tree, one step, and one partnership at a time.

NATURE'S REVITALIZING TOUCH

Discover the profound benefits of spending a day in the wilderness. Research from the Harvard Health reveals that individuals who spend just 20 minutes in a natural environment experience a significant decrease in the stress hormone cortisol, promoting overall relaxation and well-being. Immerse yourself in nature's embrace to experience its transformative effects on both relationships and thinking. Amidst vibrant landscapes, nurture connections, rejuvenate your mind, find inspiration, and ignite your creativity.

GREEN CRAFTSMANSHIP

Our thoughtfully designed and repurposed structures minimize ecological impact while honoring local traditions and craftsmanship. Each structure showcases sustainable design, supporting local artisans and preserving natural beauty. It's a unique retreat that tells a story of how balanced man-nature interactions are best achieved in our changing world: the use of our skills and expertise - whichever they may be - for, rooted in, and centered on the principles of conservation.

EXPANSIVE, GENEROUS SPACES

Being an expansive restored forest that respects environmental carrying capacities, privacy for your team events comes naturally. All visits are pre-scheduled making sure that experiences are prepared for ahead of time, space is not compromised, and the experience is tailored to your needs while respecting the natural environment and the dignity of the place. Our sanctuary offers meeting areas and spaces in nature that may be set aside for your team's reflection, brainstorming, and discussions. | MEETING AND EVENTS SPACES

All our meeting & events spaces' design elements are handcrafted with love and passion by our park rangers and craftsmen. Using sustainable resources found within the Georeserve, such as excess supplies, reclaimed timber from fallen trees, bamboo culms, and cogon grass, they have turned remnants of nature into works of art that are elegantly Filipino.

DASALAN

In its serene location amongst trees, our meditation hut, adorned with stained glass, is an ideal location to commemorate intimate occasions like weddings and vow renewals. It is also a preferred setting for spiritual retreats, reflections, or educational workshops.

TIPUNAN

Found beside Dasalan on one side, and a spacious open field in the other, Tipunan offers a versatile setting enveloped by glass walls, all set against the breathtaking backdrop of a 60-million-year-old rock formation, and glimpses of the Laguna de Bay.
